1. This new Christ-mas Car-ol Let us cheer - ful - ly sing. In hon - our and glo - ry Of our Heav - en - ly King, Who was born of a Vir - gin, Bless - ed

Ma - ry by name; For poor sin - ners re - demp-tion To the world here he came.

2. Now the proud may come hither
And may perfectly see
The most excellent pattern
Of humility;
For instead of a cradle,
Decked with ornaments gay,
Here the great King of Glory
In a manger he lay.

3. As the shepherds were feeding
Of their flocks in the field,
The sweet birth of our Saviour
Unto them was revealed
By blest angels of glory,
Who these tidings did bring,
And directed the shepherds
To their Heavenly King.

4. When the wise men discovered
This bright heavenly Star,
Then with gold and rich spices
Straight they came from afar,
In obedience to worship
With a heavenly mind,
Knowing that he was born
All for the good of mankind.

5. Let us learn of those sages,
Who were wise, to obey;
May we find through all ages
They have honoured this day,
Ever since our Redeemer's
Blest nativity,
Who was born of a Virgin
To set poor sinners free.
